Lovell, 2105 East 14th Street, Oakland, California, which was furnished to the Bureau through liaison by Mr. Harry J. Guerriert, Security Office, Joint Staff, Pentagon, Washington, D. C., on the evening of 12-4-63. The original of this communication has been furnished to the Secret Service headquarters in Washington, D. C.

For your information and possible assistance, Major General Ashton Herbert Manhart, Deputy Director, Joint Staff, at the Pentagon to whom this letter was addressed, is not acquainted with the writer or the individuals referred to in the letter. General Manhart could not furnish any information which would clarify the information contained in the letter.
